

PPD Learning Booking Policy

1. What is this Booking Policy for?

PPD Learning provides training in the Neuro-Linguistic Programming skills. The courses we provide, deliver the high quality of support and experience we believe are necessary to give students the richest opportunity for learning and transformation. At PPD Learning, we do not believe in acquiring just the knowledge of NLP, we believe in mastering the art of NLP. We also believe that this is a continuous ongoing process rather than a destination.

The PPD Learning Community is the group of students who have joined PPD Learning on their journey. This includes all those who attend our training, either for the first time, or to review their attendance on our courses. We would love for you to join and to be a part of the PPD Learning community.

PPD Learning values giving students the choices on their journeys. This Booking Policy is about delivering value, and about increasing the transparency in our relationship, so that you can make the best choices for you.
